HERE WE COME AGAIN

We're back and it's Fall. It is a beginning, an interim, and an end in itself. So we come, some of us for the first time, others by way of saying farewell. Another year — freshman, sophomore, junior, senior year all rolled into one. It's Fall and we're back because we always do, always have, and always will come back.

For the Upperclassmen . . .

the familiar beginnings.

Beginnings of a collection of memories.

School . . .

beginnings
of a new look.

And When the Year Ended . . .

a new year of beginnings lay ahead.

SCHOOL BOARD AND ADMINISTRATION

A High School yearbook should be and is a documentation of all of the important activities that occur during the school year. This year's "book of the year" is designed for that purpose, and ably addresses itself to that function.

On behalf of the School Administration and the District generally, we wish to thank the yearbook staff for the job which they have carried out in producing this book. We shall all enjoy their work for many years yet to come.

May we also take this opportunity to wish to each member of the Class of 1975, the featured class in this yearbook, a happy and successful future. The yearbook attests to the many fine contributions that have been made to our ELCO school community by this class.

Thank you, Class of 1975.

Sincerely,

Readers Guide . . . Shhh . . . dictionaries . . . magazine requests . . . Philadelphia Inquirer . . . research for term papers . . . studying . . . "People, be quiet!" . . . word of the week . . . Dewey decimal system . . . the library makes it happen!

The Library provides not only reference materials but also current books and magazines for free reading. It's goals are to keep the student body informed of current events and to provide opportunities for supplementing their education.

NURSE

I don't feel very well, shouldn't I go home? . . . Soak it in epsom salts . . . physicals with Dr. Courtney . . . Nellie the Nurse . . . did you study for your urine test? . . . now cover your left eye . . . which ear did you hear the bleep in? . . . I don't weigh that much - do I?

Although the medications of the Nurse are limited, she is still a great help to the ill and injured at ELCO. Her reassuring words framed by comforting smiles are always present and help to ease the pain.

MR. FRANK DEANER

MR. GEORGE McDONALD

MISS DARLENE MILLER

The clatter of typewriters and the ringing of bells drift down from the Business rooms in symphony of mechanical euphony. These are the sounds of ELCO's world of business and high finance.

The Vocational Business Education Department's purpose is to teach students so that they will be employable. In their learning, personality and character traits are developed that businesses request such as loyalty, honesty, dependability, neatness, and the ability to follow instructions.

GUIDANCE

Problems . . . headaches . . . mixed up computerized schedules . . . what do you want to do after high school - do you really want to do THAT? . . . tutoring . . . business schools . . . Mr. Duncan . . . applications . . . scholarships . . . letters of acceptance. Possible solutions to the questions of our futures are the topics of discussion in the Guidance Department. College catalogs and representatives of the business world and armed forces are always available to interested students. The opportunity to fill a role in society begins here in the Guidance Office.

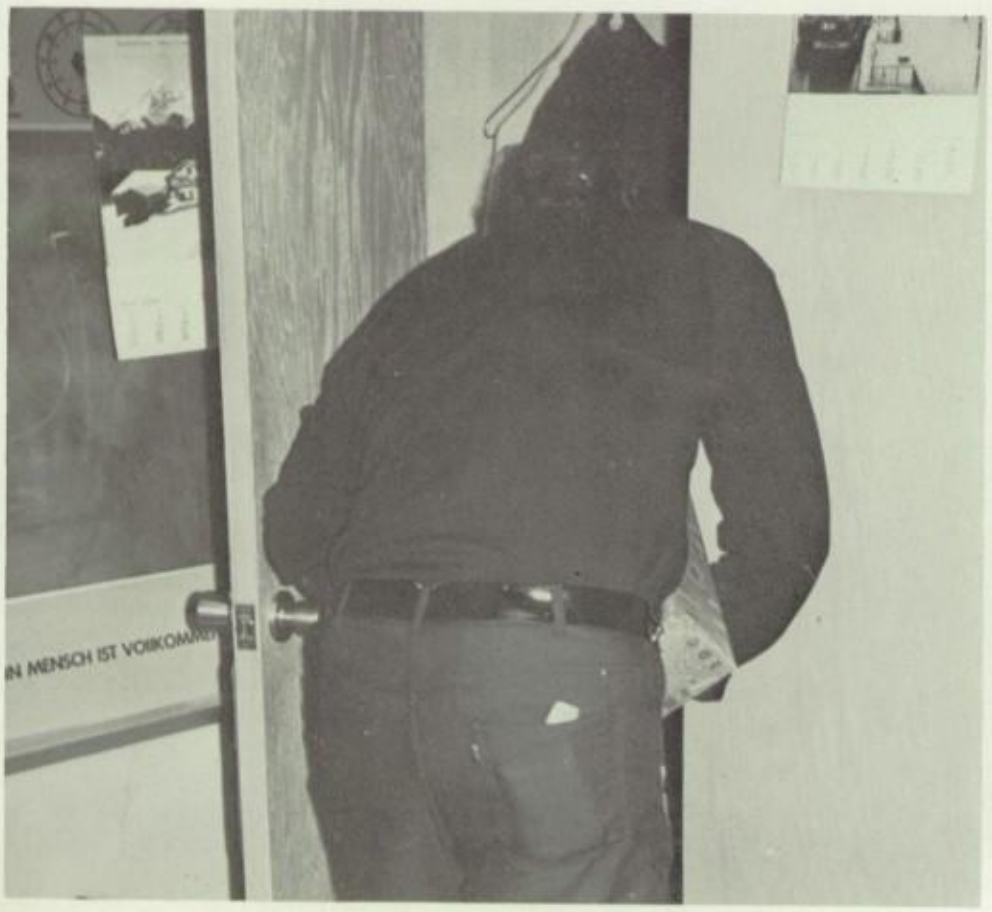
MR. MILES J. McDONALD

The lovely sounds of first year linguists butchering a foreign language . . . outrageous conjugations of Spanish verbs . . . slides, slides, and more slides . . . Deutschland Spiegel in reverse . . . gossiping in Latin . . . falling asleep in the language lab . . . misconstructed genders . . . dinners . . . German Christmas Carols.

This year students are offered courses in German, Spanish, and Latin. In each of these the student learns grammar, vocabulary, and cultural aspects of the particular country.



ENGLISH

MRS. ESTHER Z. PAPSON

MISS ELAINE GOUKER

MRS. GAIL HIBSHMAN

Debates . . . scrapbooks . . . "Listen up" . . . Hamlet . . . who? . . . gerunds . . . Writing Clinics . . . "Don't write on my bulletin board" . . . "God bless you."

If one is to write, one must believe in the truth and worth of the scrawl, in the ability of the reader to receive and decode the message.

The ELCO English curriculum enables students to understand and assess themselves - their creativeness and their potential as compassionate human beings.

HOME EC

Odors of gastronomical delights and dismal culinary failures float through the Home Ec rooms like a fantasy straight out of Julia Child. Here the automatic oven timer reigns supreme. A burning layer cake, by any other name, would smell just the same.

The ELCO Home Economics Department is responsible for the creation of costumes for the musicals, hemming chorus gowns, and delectable dinners. The courses of study are interesting and diversified, and conducted under the watchful eyes of Mrs. Bickel and Miss Smeltzer.

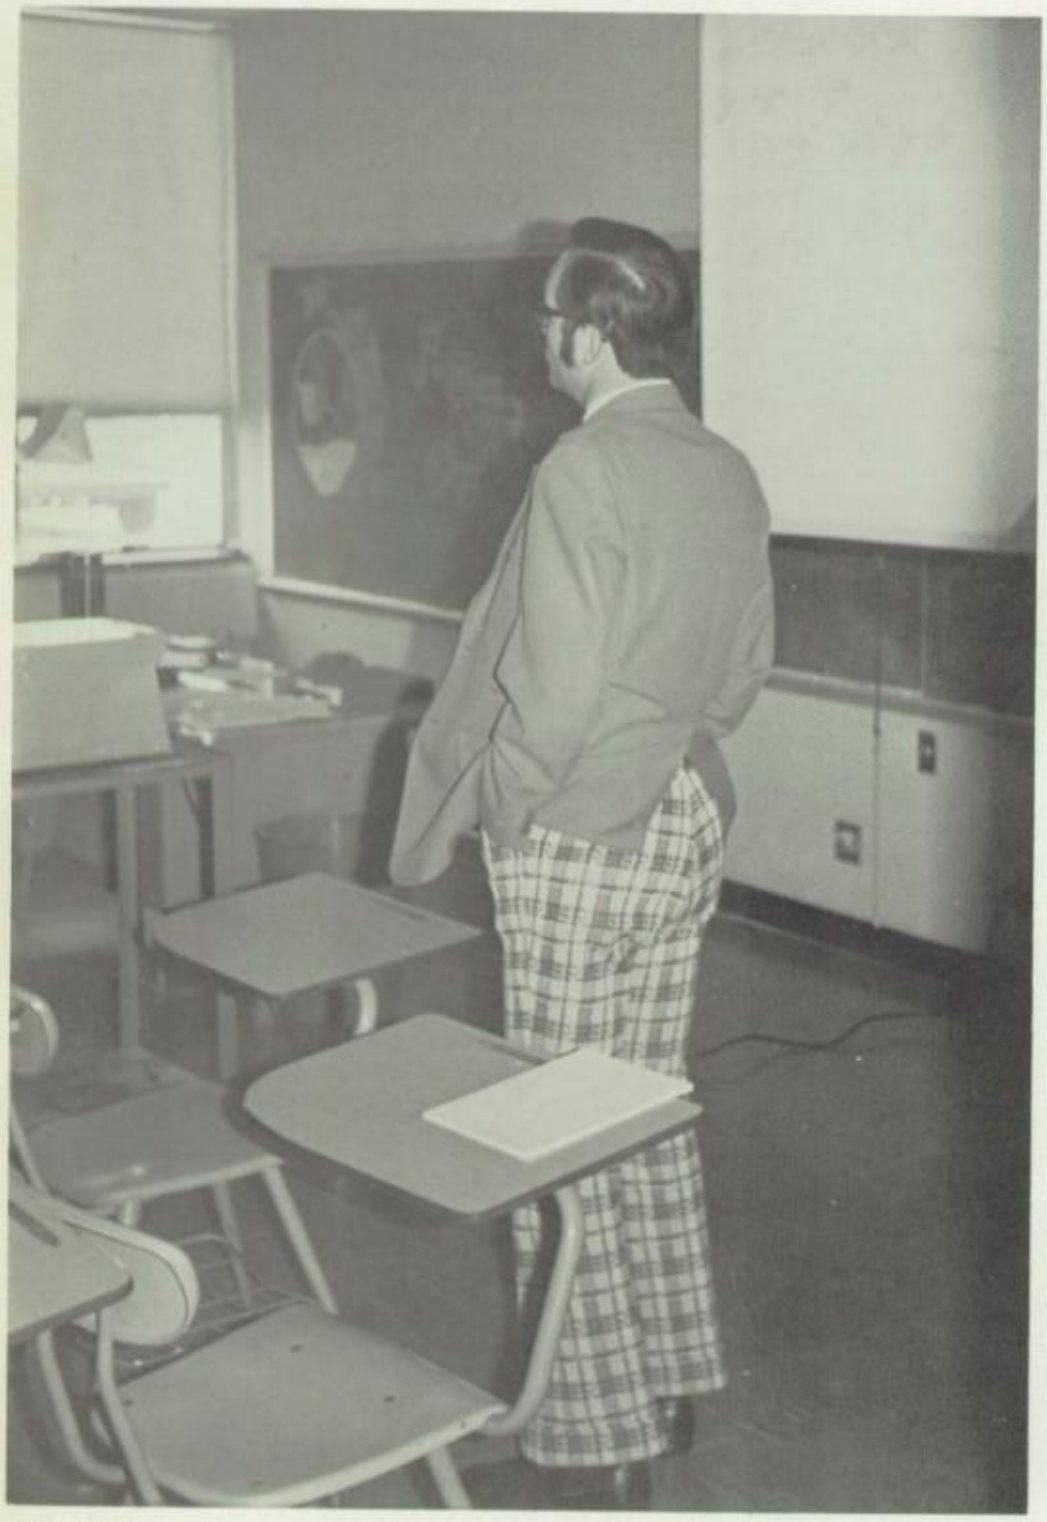
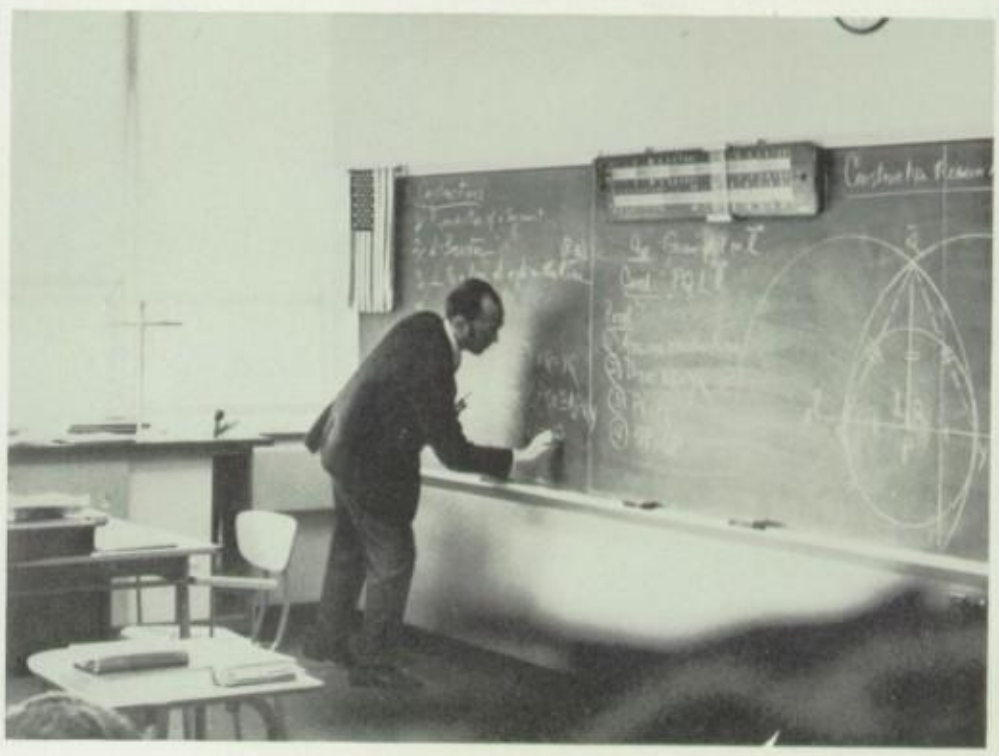
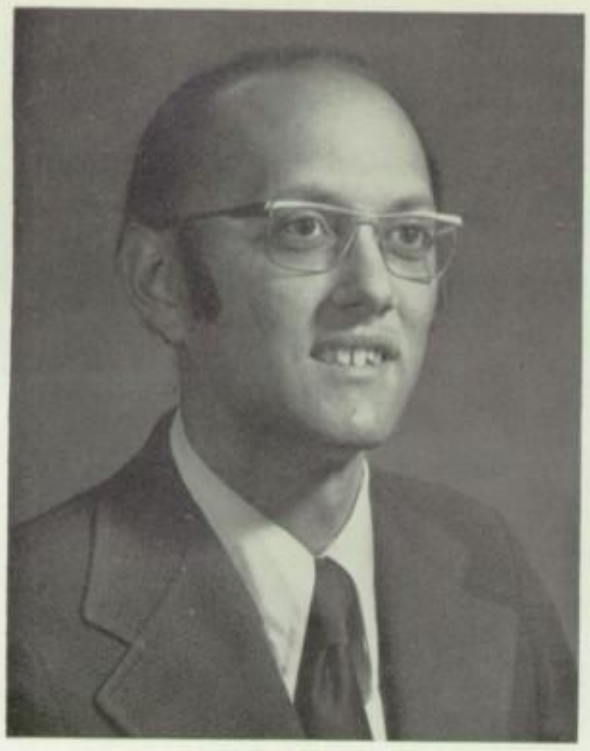
MATH







MR. GARY GOOD

MR. STANLEY BROSSMAN

MR. RODNEY FRAZER

With dauntless courage, the average math student combats reluctant polynomials, unrelenting equations, and stubborn geometrical constructions with uncertain ease. Armed with pencil and protractor, we pit our hapless intellects against the most bewildering of mathematical theorums - Trig students in search of identities - with only the faintest hint of success.

It is this vague glimmering of hope that drives us on, in spite of tangents, unyielding slide rules, and reading problems. Perhaps it is not entirely a losing battle.

As one of our mathematical scholars says, "Things are looking up." We certainly hope so.

The ELCO High School Mathematics Department offers courses in college prep, general, and business math.

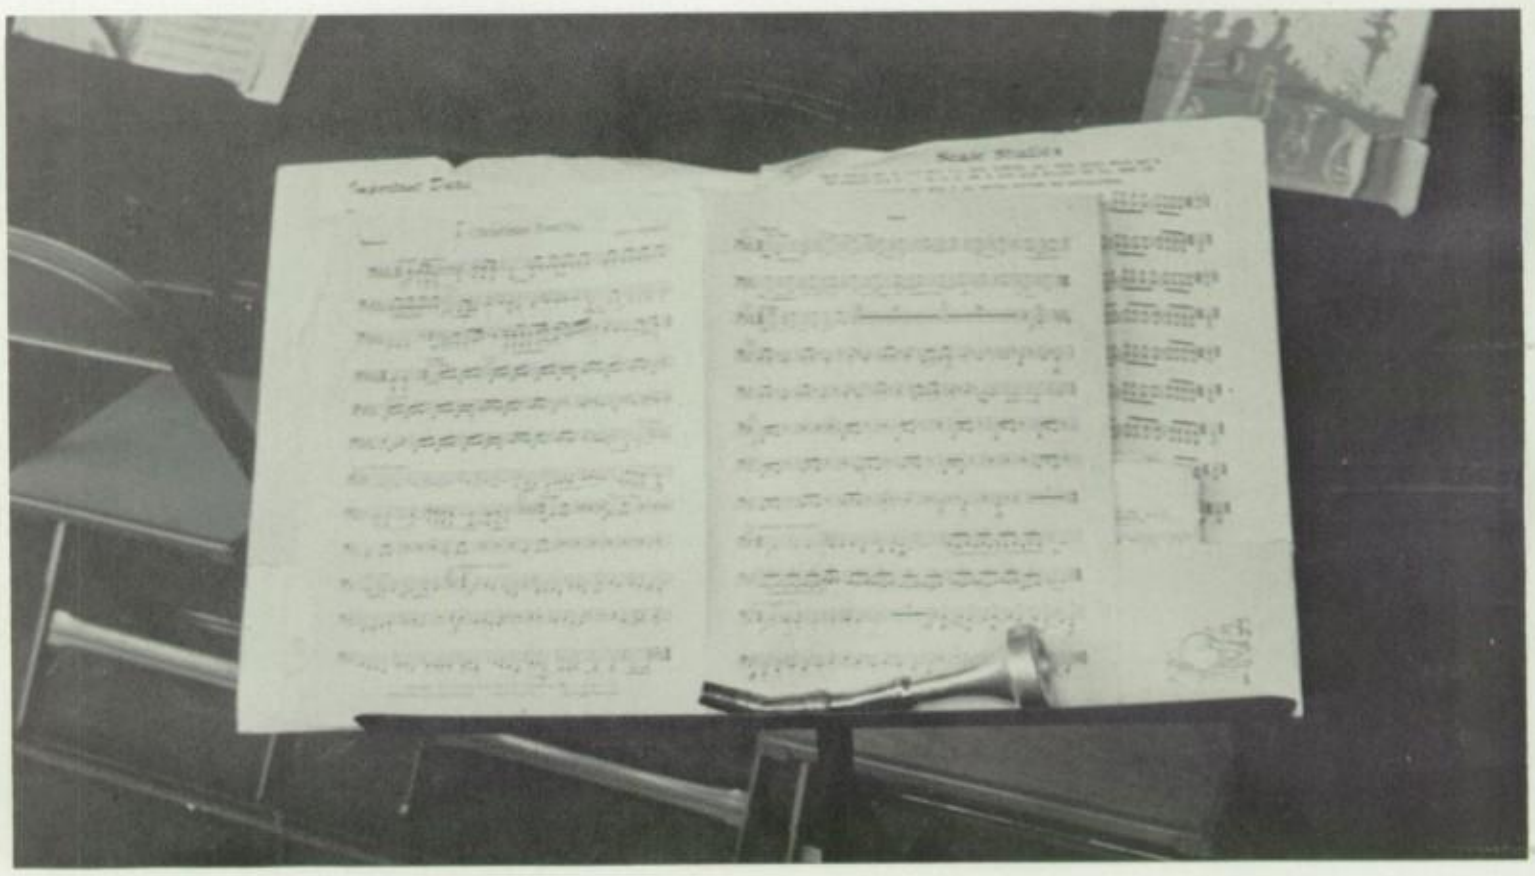
Music at ELCO means Mr. Shultz, for he directs both band and chorus. This was a year of accomplishment for the band. New uniforms were delivered in time for the first football game. Christmas was special for chorus members. "A Song Unending," the Christmas story in song, was presented to the student body, on television, and on radio.



Students who need more personalized instruction receive their education under the guidance of Mr. Arbogast. With his help, these pupils are able to develop their potential more fully.

Some of the most dedicated ELCO students spend their time in the VO-AG rooms fussing over frail Easter flowers and tinkering with a tractor that just doesn't run quite right. Under the direction of friend and teacher, Mr. Adams, they enjoy the rare experience of farming where body, mind, and spirit are one.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

MR. DWIGHT C. FAKE

Henry Ford once said, in what we can only hope to be a passing fit of whimsey, "All history is bunk."

Within these hallowed halls, our erstwhile history department strives with consummate skill to eradicate such malicious rumors. From the Teapot Dome Scandle to Watergate, from neolithic man to our modern day selves, the pageant of mans' often times confused story unfolds with the competent aid of our resident historians. And quite a good story it is, too. After all, what did Henry Ford know?

The ELCO Social Science Department offers the following disciplines to students: anthropology, economics, geography, history, sociology and a new course in psychology.

RAIDER FOOTBALL

The lineman waits in studied silence. His helmet swings low between his knees; the stale air of the locker room settles around him like a musty and oppressive blanket. For him, there is no swift passage of time, no world other than the playing field he anticipates.

Last minute defeats ruined the Raiders chances for a perfect season. Screaming fans . . . blaring bands . . . bruised bodies . . . battle scars . . . long runs . . . broken records . . . emotions showing . . . TOUCHDOWN!

Beginning in the hot, humid August and ending on a crisp November afternoon, the season proved to be one of first rate competition. Teammates working toward a common goal - victory.

Four new school records were set this year. They are: 35 touchdowns per season, 244 points - most points scored in a season, 19 extra points - new record for extra points by an individual (Al Clauser), 61 points - most points scored in a single game (ELCO vs. Solanco).

Congratulations!

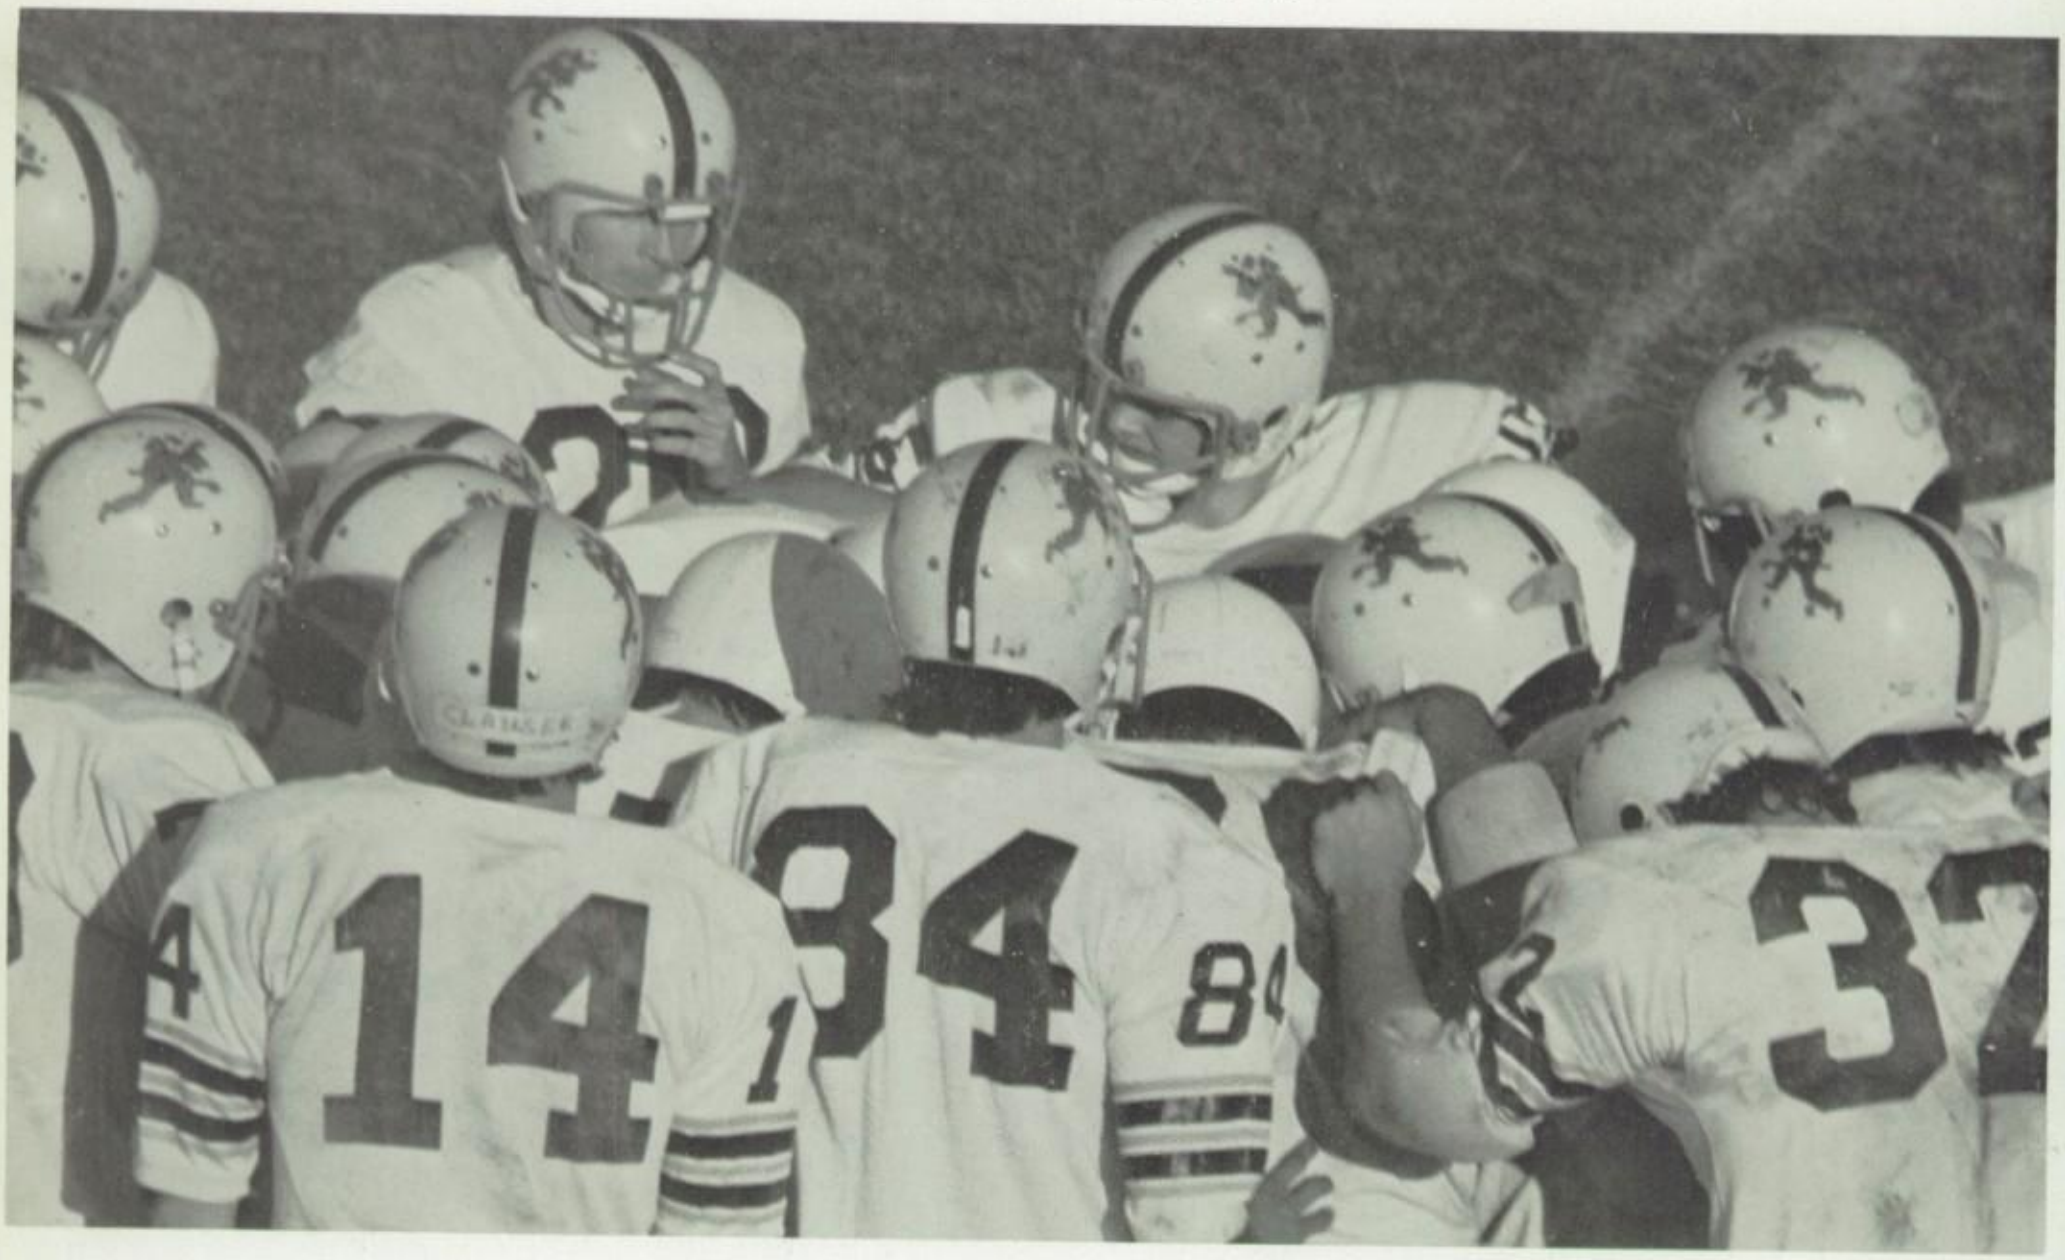
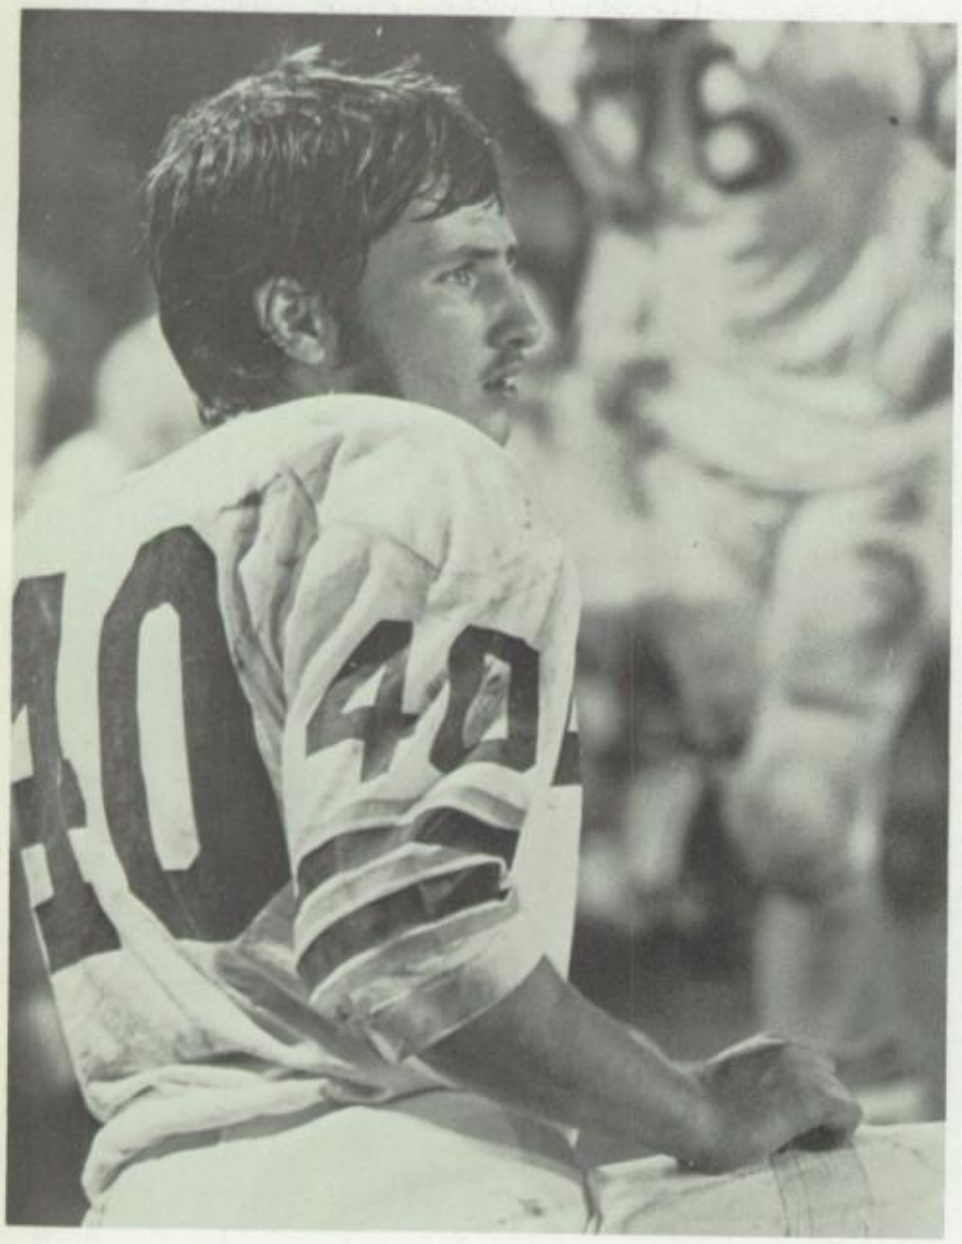
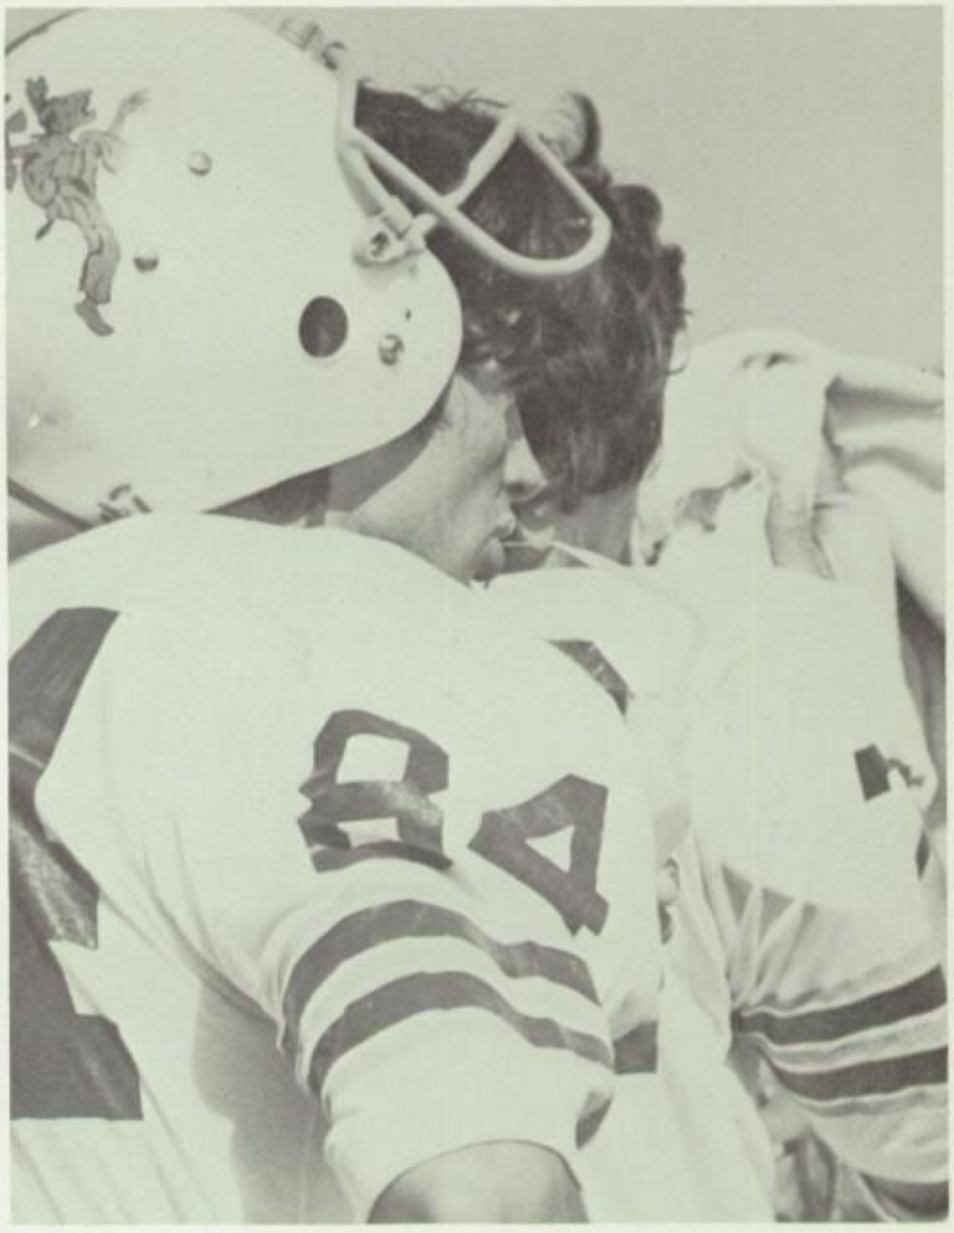
YES WE CAN!







WE ALMOST MADE IT

We almost made it.

Unfortunately, "almost" doesn't count. An agonizing loss to a tough Garden Spot club pushed the Raiders out of the top spot in Section One of the Leb-Lan Soccer League. Their spirit heightened by a thirteen game win streak, the Raiders bowed to the victorious Spartans. Excellence and pride abounded on this years' squad culminating in some of the most exciting play ELCO has ever seen.

Individual performances were harmonized into a magnificent team effort. Named to the All-State Soccer Team were Robin Miller - offense and James Seager - defense.

We're proud!

SEASON RECORD 13-4

Long and lonely . . . bursting lungs . . . straining muscles . . . stop watch . . . up hills and down . . . hard work . . . Time versus Speed versus Endurance.

During the early months of the school year, it is not unusual to see a lonely figure rounding the corner of the Middle School on a course that will take him through a goodly part of the countryside surrounding ELCO. The Cross Country team compiled quite an impressive record during the 1974-75 season. With the help of Coach Dubble the foundation has been built for ELCO's entrance into fame as a cross-country power.

BASKETBALL

It's over. The faint memory of cheering crowds trancends the quiet still of the post-game locker-room. The waiting, the hopes, the disappointments, the agony, sweat and tears of defeat blend into dry statistics, producing an unworthy record of hours in practice and dedicated hearts. The locker room welcomes a band of desolate young men with a cold shower rather than the echoes of a victory shout.

Half-Nelson . . . Take him down! . . . new uniforms and a set of matching cheerleaders . . . Pin that guy! . . . Go Kenny!

Although the final record was a dismal one, spirit among the wrestlers was always high. This year's team began to draw attention from the fans and showed the promise of successful seasons to come. Coach Kochera had a reason to smile as Kenny Reich (167 lbs.) advanced to competition on the regional level and finished in fourth place.

RAIDER BASEBALL

As Spring arrived and the baseball season started, so did the rains. Marked by many cancellations and postponements, our baseball team finished the season with a respectable 12-9 record, and the Annville-Cleona Tournament Championship. Bob Deck, Charlie Anspach, and Derek Sutherly led the offensive attack with season batting averages over .310. Pitching was led by seniors Jeff Shutter and Steve Keller with a fine staff of underclassmen behind them. The JV team coached by Mr. Steve Oliver did a fine job and ELCO has something to be proud of and to look forward to in coming years.

TRACK

The 1975 track season was the most successful in ELCO track history as the team finished in the league with a 12-2 record. Eight senior high and two junior high records were broken as the team scored over 100 points in eleven of thirteen dual meets. The squad of fifty-three boys was led by captains Jon Gyorke (212 1/4 points) and Rich Mitstifer (107 points). Coaches were Rod Frazer, Warren Grubb, Fred Poorman, Dave Dubble. Managers were Dave Fetter, Mark Mitsifer, and Barry Dohner.

SOFTBALL AND GIRLS TRACK

Girls sports expanded during the spring season with the addition of girls track. Although only competing in scrimmages, the girls did well and worked hard in this new endeavor. They will enter Leb-Lancaster league action next season.

The softball season was cut short this year by rained out games. Because of the absence of a league in our area, the girls play only scrimmages. Fielding a strong team they finished with a 4-4 record. Hopes are for a league to be started next year by schools in the Leb-Lancaster area.

Love . . . Deuce . . . Game . . . Set . . . Match . . . Forehand . . . Backhand . . . Who ever hit that tennis ball over the fence can go get it out of the corn field . . . Volley . . . Wow! You play just like Chris Everet.

Although the tennis year was a disappointment, it was characterized by hard work and determination on the part of both teams. They are looking forward to a stronger season next year.

Chris,
You're a really great kid & super terrific (Is that right?) class of "1977" yea! Always remember the fun times in homeroom with Kugle and fun times with Deb, Swirl, and Barb, Sue etc. at Deb's party. Always remember Debbie & her problems with Bob, and all the guys from all her trips and excursions.
Always keep your great smile & personality and you'll go far. Remember the fun we had at Band Camp & with Ken Greene and Bill! Also remember the nice little sentences he had for us!
Luck & Success in the future! Try to remember me sometimes

STUDENT LIFE

HOMECOMING 1974 Better Than Best

Steven Keller and Sherrie Firestine

On the morning of Saturday, October 5, the sun's first rays descended upon sleepy sign makers hard at work with paints and glitter and rolls of masking tape. As the sunlight grew brighter, soccer nets, multi-colored balloons, M-G's, and cafeteria tables emerged from the shadows. The sun rose higher into the cloudless sky and it smiled upon hockey players, soccer stars, Mrs. Papson, and the guests of honor, the alumni. The afternoon sun warmed the fair shoulders of the Tri-Hi-Y President as she endeavored to solve The Case of the Missing Pep Band. Sunlight glared off the helmets of the modern-day gladiators while they sprinted on to the field of battle to pit their strength against the foes and defeat them. As the last cheers were sounded, the last balloons burst, the last candy apples devoured, the final tears were shed, the sun began to slip behind the mountain and with it went Homecoming 1974-75. Better than Best.

This was a year of change for the Sigma Staff. Breaking a tradition, along with a new advisor, this yearbook is a complete and total record of happenings from September to June. Much work, thought, and love has gone into every picture and every line of copy. Many a night was spent trying to make pictures fit into those cute little squares which filled every copy sheet.

Now, after 12 months, $7,000, 2 million pictures, and one lifetime later this diary of the school year 1974-75 is yours forever. We of the staff hope that you can look back and remember this year with a smile, now and in the future.

We've Only Just Begun . . .

Before the rising
Sun we fly.
So many roads to choose.
We start out
walking and learn to run.
And yes. We've Just Begun

And when the evening comes we smile.
So much of life ahead.
We'll find a place where there's room to grow.
And yes We've Just Begun.

Chris
You're a very pretty girl. remember piece and I'm not going to say remember all the good times but I must forget
I know you'll never forget because we all the good times (although we haven't
Forget all your boyfriends (at least 6 more to get)
Keep your pretty smile and you'll go far.
Good Luck and Success in the future and may God bless you!

CLASS MOTTO — Yesterday is but today's memory and tomorrow is today's dream.

CLASS COLORS — Forest Green and Ivory CLASS FLOWER — White Rose

FAREWELL

As the colors of the spectrum come together to make a solid beam of white light, so the many different colors of our school lives are joining on this evening to provide the light of our new lives apart from each other.

Twelve years ago we began our formal education armed with a new pencil, clean lined sheets of tablet paper, and the ability to count to ten.

Color us excited and expectant and set to conquer the world, as long as we were home for supper.

Each of our grade school years provided us with new friends, new ideas, and a new awareness of ourselves.

Color us free and growing and just a tiny bit awkward, for this was also a time for discovering each other.

But then we reached the end of our sixth grade prominence and entered high school as humble seventh graders.

Color us frightened and lost and in awe of everyone and everything bigger than we.

As our high school years continued, things again took on a size that was easier to cope with, and we settled back into the business of choosing courses, joining teams, doing homework, and finding a better way to make forward progress in the lunch line.

Color us happy and typically teenaged and satisfied with life.

Finally, September 1974 arrived and we were seniors. Along with this noble position came many responsibilities and a great deal of fun. School activities became ours to plan and put into action. There were queens to be chosen, games to be won, sandwiches to sell and lives outside the safe haven of high school to consider.

Tonight is the climax of the six years we've spent here as classmates, teammates and friends. Tonight we feel all the tears and smiles that together form the memories we hold in our hearts.

To our parents and teachers who lived these days with us — perhaps we didn't always take time to say it, but thank you for the time, understanding and love you gave so freely.

For ourselves — DARE TO BE DIFFERENT. Have the courage to think your own thoughts, speak your own mind and live your own life. Don't be tooled into thinking that learning stops now — believe that you can go on growing and you will. Success means something different to each of us. It is your own answer to the problem of making your years add up to a great life.

ELCO, the time has come. We're Seniors!

Color us gone.

The class of 1975 bids you farewell.
